Section 8. All regular and special meetings of this Lodge shall adjourn promptly two hours after the meeting has been convened, except that a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the membership present may extend the meeting until a specific time from which there shall be no further extension.

ARTICLE IV

EXECUTIVE BOARD AND DUTIES

Section 1. The Executive Board shall consist of eight elected Constitutional Officers of the Lodge, and five (5) members shall constitute a quorum of the Executive Board at any of its meetings.

Section 2. The Executive Board shall conduct its business in a methodical and businesslike way, keeping a record of its proceedings, and otherwise conducting its affairs according to the IAM Constitution, and District Lodge Bylaws.

Section 3. It shall set a time for meetings not less than once each month and transact any business referred to it by this Lodge. The Chairman may call a special meeting by notifying, and approval by, the majority of the members of the Board.

Section 4. All meetings of the Executive Board shall be held at a location mutually agreed upon by the members of the Executive Board and approved by the membership.

Section 5. It shall be its duty to deliberate upon all matters coming to its attention for the good and welfare of this Lodge, and as soon thereafter as possible to report to this Lodge its recommendations. All Executive Board recommendations and motions presented to the Lodge shall be called Executive Board Propositions and be numbered consecutively and voted on individually.

Section 6. The Executive Board shall immediately act upon all matters referred to it by the Lodge and report to the Lodge at the next meeting.

Section 7. The Executive Board shall have the authority, between regular Lodge meetings, to act on all matters of an emergency nature that would impair the welfare of the Lodge. This section will apply in emergency cases only, and all matters acted upon shall be reported to the membership.

Section 8. Any member of the Executive Board missing two (2) consecutive Executive Board and/or regular Lodge meetings of this Lodge, without being excused, shall give the Executive Board an acceptable excuse for not being present. If the excuse is not acceptable to the majority of the Board members present, it will be referred to the next regular lodge meeting for action.

Should the Lodge fail to excuse the member for such absence, the presiding officer shall prefer charges against such member in accordance with applicable provisions of the IAM Constitution.

Section 9. All vacancies of offices between elections covering Executive Board members and Delegates shall be filled by temporary appointment by the President of the Lodge. Such temporary appointments shall be for such period as is reasonably required to bring about the election of a successor in accordance with the provision of these Bylaws and the IAM Constitution.

ARTICLE V

NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

Section 1. Nominations for Officers, Delegates, and Elective Committees of this Lodge shall be held at the Lodge during the first or only regular meeting in the month of September, and the Recording Secretary shall read the names of the nominees at the completion of the nominations at this meeting. Elections shall be held at the first or only regular meeting in October, at the Lodge.

Section 2. Designation of officers, and qualifications for office in this Lodge shall be the same as provided for in the IAM Constitution, Article B. Term of office shall be for three (3) years.

All candidates for elective office must be members of Aerospace/Defense Industry Related District Lodge 725 for at least one (1) year and a member of this Lodge at the time of nomination and free from delinquency of any nature.

A member must attend fifty percent (50%) of the regular lodge meetings since transferring into this Lodge, or during the 12-month period ending the date of close of nominations to be qualified candidate as an officer, delegate(s), or elective committee.

A roster will be kept at the entrance of the meeting hall for attending members to sign. It will be the responsibility of the members to sign the Local Lodge attendance roster and the stewards to sign the union stewards rosters.

Members nominated for office, delegates or elective committees shall give their name and Union card number to the Recording Secretary for the purpose of verifying their eligibility in accordance with the IAM Constitution and these bylaws.

Nominations shall not be accepted if the member being nominated is not present at the time the nomination is made; except that nominations accompanied with a letter of acceptance signed by the nominee shall be valid.

Section 3. No candidate shall be removed from the ballot after the election committee has certified the eligibility of candidates. The deadline for certification will be the Wednesday following the close of nominations.

Section 4. At the close of nominations for any election, the President shall appoint three (3) or five (5) tellers who are not candidates, who shall have full charge of the election and will:

(a) Have a sufficient number of ballots printed or mimeographed as recommended by the Executive Board. They will be responsible for numbering the ballots and corresponding voting sheets.

(b) Each ballot will list in alphabetical order, the nominee for each office, and for any nominee then serving in an office for which he/she is a candidate. The word "incumbent" will be entered in parenthesis after his or her name.

(c) The President may appoint alternate tellers so that the chairperson has at least two (2) tellers present at all times while the balloting is being conducted.

(d) Each nominee may submit in writing to the election chairperson the name of any Local Lodge member in good standing, who is to act as an official observer.

(e) Ballot boxes are not to be removed from the polling place until such time as the tellers proceed to count the votes cast. The ballots will be counted where the Local Lodge conducts its regular meetings.

(f) Any void ballot is a ballot not cast and will be subtracted from the total number of ballots cast. Any void section of a ballot voids only that section of the ballot. The election results will be determined by the number of ballots cast.

(g) If for some reason the elected delegates and committee members cannot fulfill their commitments, the alternate shall be the runner-up in the balloting of the passed election.

Section 5. The polls shall be open in the Lodge room from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. on the day of the election. Members of this Lodge desiring to vote and when found in good standing by the tellers shall be given a ballot. Members shall mark their ballots secretly and vote for the required number of candidates specified on ballot headings and deposit the ballot in the sealed ballot box provided. Should he or she spoil his or her ballot, he or she may return it to the tellers, who shall void it and give him or her another ballot.

Section 6. At 3:00 p.m. and after the polls have been duly closed by the President of this Lodge, the Tellers shall collect all absentee ballots and shall proceed to count the votes cast and tabulate same on two (2) tally sheets prepared by the Recording Secretary for that purpose and render their report to the Lodge, setting forth in detail the total number of ballots used, destroyed, or not counted; the total number of votes cast, a correct record of the votes cast for each candidate, a copy of which shall be placed with the tally sheets and ballots in the ballot box and sealed, to be turned over to the Recording Secretary at the next regular meeting, who shall file same for a period of one (1) year.

Section 7. Write-in candidates shall be declared illegal and void. That portion of the ballot containing write-in candidates shall be declared void and not counted by the election tellers.

Section 8. Any member desiring to contest the election must file notice with the Recording Secretary within three (3) days after the result of the election has been officially announced. In the case of a contest, the President shall appoint a committee of five (5) members before the next regular meeting following the contest of the election. This committee shall investigate the protest and submit a written report of their findings at the next regular meeting. At that meeting, the membership shall act upon the committee report.

(a) In order to be valid, the notice must be in writing and contain an outlined description of the violation or irregular procedure of either the Lodge Bylaws or the IAM Constitution.

(b) Failure to describe the violation or irregular procedure will invalidate the contest and no further action will be taken by the Lodge.

(c) Notice must contain the members complete contact information. To include but not be limited to the member's name, Union card number, address, contact phone number and member's signature.

(d) If an electronic device such as email is used to provide notice to the Lodge, a hard copy of the contest containing an original signature, with the above requested information, listed in both (a) and (c), along with a response email address, must be provided to the Lodge prior to the committee's investigative meeting to be valid.

Section 9. Challenge ballots shall be issued to those members not presenting a stamped-up dues card nor found to be in good standing by the tellers. Members shall mark their ballot and enclose it in the envelope provided, sealing the envelope and filling in the information requested on the outside of envelope. These ballots will be verified for eligibility and returned to the tellers unopened. Those marked ineligible shall be retained unopened. All eligible ballots will be opened and counted. Envelopes shall be retained along with the ineligible ballots for the prescribed length of time as all ballots.

Section 10. Any candidate for any office within this Lodge, who shall pay or offer to pay any fines, dues, or assessments, or a consideration of any kind to a member for the purpose of receiving his/her vote or for furthering his/her candidacy, shall be deemed guilty of bribery and punished by fine, or expulsion, in accordance with the code, and the bribe-taker shall receive the same punishment as the bribe-giver.

Section 11. Conduct and notification of the nominations and elections shall be held in accordance with the IAM Constitution, Article B. Absentee ballots shall be provided to the members, as set forth in the IAM Constitution, Article B, for the election of all Officers, Delegates and Elective Committees who are nominated and elected at the same time and manner as Local Lodge Officers.

Section 12. Electioneering within the confines of the building in which the polling place is located in such a manner as to restrict the entrance to the building shall be prohibited. Any member doing so shall be deemed guilty of conduct unbecoming a member.

Section 13. No alcoholic beverages will be allowed within the election or meeting halls of this Lodge. Sealed alcoholic containers presented by the Lodge will be allowed in the meeting hall as long as it remains sealed until removed from the property.

Section 14. All Officers shall be elected by plurality. Should a tie vote occur in the vote for any particular office(s), a run-off election shall be held for such office(s). A 15-day notice of such run-off election shall be given to each member qualified to vote. Subject to the 15-day notice, such run-off election will be held at the earliest possible subsequent regular meeting. In the event of a run-off election, the installations of officers elected thereby shall be held at the regular meeting of the Lodge immediately following the run-off election.

All alternates will be the person or persons receiving the next highest amount of votes below the winner. The first alternate will be the member receiving the next highest number of votes below the winner, etc.

The newly elected officers shall be installed at the next regular meeting after the final election.

Section 15. Installation of officers shall be in accordance with the IAM Constitution, Article B.

ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES

Section 1. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Local Lodge, preserve and insure the orderly conduct of business, enforce these bylaws and all provisions of the IAM Constitution and District Lodge Bylaws that apply to this Local Lodge, decide all points of order and in case of a tie, shall cast the deciding vote.
